About Ulladulla and the NSW South Coast

Beaches, lakes walking tracks, fantastic views are all part of the many attractions of Ulladulla and nearby holidays spots like Mollymook.

Go diving, paddle boarding, stop at one of the many restaurants or perhaps a winery, brewery or fromagerie, hire a pedal kayak or take a Commee Nulunga Cultural Tour with an Aboriginal tour guide. Experience stunning coastline and bushland views, traditional bush tucker and medicines talk and walk, and friendly and knowledgeable tour guides.

Ulladulla has many restaurants for every cuisine – whether you are hungry for Chinese, Thai, Japanese, Italian, a great steak or seafood, Ulladulla is for you. If your preference is for clubs then there are bowling clubs, ex services clubs and golf clubs to choose from.

Getting there...

Easily accessed by road, it really is a beautiful place and certainly the place to be in March 2020.

By Car: Drive from Sydney via the Princes Highway (221km) or from Melbourne via the Princes Highway (804km) or Hume Highway and Barton Highway (838km but 1 hour quicker)

By plane and car: Fly from any capital city to Canberra and drive via the Barton and Princes Highways.

Bus options: There are also bus options available. See bus company timetables for connecting buses to major airports.

Where can you stay?

The conference, welcome BBQ and dinner venues are in the heart of Ulladulla where a wide range of accommodation types are to be found.
